Constitution and Bylaws - 2020-01-08 Revision

Temporary amendment made by executive at 8 January 2020 executive meeting

At the executive meeting on 8 January 2020, the executive voted to amend the bylaws by removing part (d) of bylaw Article 6, Section 1 - Conduct of Trips, which said:

(d) The trip leader of a multi-day trip of 10 participants or more (including the leader) is entitled to attend the trip at no charge. All of the normal per-participant costs for the trip leader (including transportation) shall be absorbed by the rest of the trippers.

As part of this change, statement (e) that followed was renumbered to (d).

This statement had been added to the bylaws at the 23 October 2013 AGM per a proposed amendment, which had been accepted by the membership. Over the years, the amendment hadn't seemed to fulfill part of its goal (unstated) of encouraging more people to lead. The submitter of the 2013 amendment recommended that it be rescinded. Per Paragraph 2 of "Article 5 - Amending Formula" of the Constitution, the executive voted to make this change.

This amendment (to remove the 2013 amendment) is valid until the 2020 AGM or any SGM that might precede the AGM. As described by the same paragraph in the Constitution, if the vote for this amendment passes at the AGM or SGM, this 2020 amendment shall be made permanent; if not, it shall be rescinded and (d) above shall be returned to the bylaws.
